

Workplace Investigations

Achieve fairness, transparency, and accountability with our experienced team of Workplace Investigators and Industrial Relations experts.

The BelRose Group - Ensuring Fairness and Equity in the Workplace!

Key principles:

- Procedural Fairness
- Natural Justice

Benefits of conducting investigations under these principles:

- Fair hearing for all parties
- No bias or prejudice in decision-making
- Transparency and accountability
- Minimised risk of legal action
- Maintained trust between employees and management

Why engage an external investigator?

- Impartial and objective view
- Fresh perspective on the situation
- Avoidance of potential conflicts of interest
- Expertise and experience in conducting thorough investigations
- Guidance on appropriate steps and efficient processes
- Speedy resolution
- Comprehensive reports that are industrially sound and ensure the delegate has relevant facts for decision making purposes

Choose The BelRose Group!

Our team of experienced Workplace Investigators and Industrial Relations experts ensure that investigations are conducted under the principles of procedural fairness and natural justice. Engaging a BelRose Group Guru as an external independent workplace investigator provides many benefits, including impartiality, expertise, and the avoidance of potential conflicts of interest. By prioritising these principles in workplace investigations, you can ensure a fair and equitable work environment for all employees.

Contact us today to discuss your workplace investigation needs.

1300 308 707

info@belrosegroupp.com.au

www.belrosegroupp.com.au