Lan is a star recruiter with an amazing ability to recruit hard to fill jobs. Lan has extensive experience in the Hospitality industry both in the operations and apprentice training areas. Lan draws on her screening skills to identify candidates whose experience and capabilities suit the requirements of each role. Whether you need a hospitality worker or a General Manager, Lan's incredible people skills and ability to seal the deal are qualities you don't want to miss when you next recruit. Lan is a team play who is passionate about service excellence and professional development. With her extensive experience in public and private sectors, she has managed people from walks of life and is well versed in having difficult discussions, coaching, and mentoring, and getting to the 'root cause' of employee issues. Lan is dedicated, thorough, and most importantly just a lovely person to deal with!
